

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Thomas A. Clark, Special Counsel at Reilly Pozner, LLP in Denver, CO is pleased to announce that he is expanding his practice into the area of Estate Planning and Administration and has become affiliated with WealthCounsel, LLC – a nationwide collaboration of trusts and estates attorneys and other legal, tax and business professionals. As a WealthCounsel member, Thomas contributes to and draws on the knowledge and expertise of more than 250 of his colleagues.

“I joined WealthCounsel in order to offer my clients the most up-to-date estate planning strategies,” Clark said. “Using their Practice Systems I can help my clients with cutting-edge planning techniques executed in documents that are comprehensive, flexible and easy-to-read.”

WealthCounsel members contribute to the ongoing development of Practice Systems through their web-based discussion group, at WealthCounsel Study Groups and at other continuing education courses.

“This is the kind of quality that I am pleased to bring into my own practice,” Clark said. “I believe that through collaborative efforts with our colleagues, WealthCounsel members are able to deliver the most technically up-to-date and peer-reviewed documents, advice and counsel for our clients.”

Thomas Clark is an experienced attorney with over a decade of experience in many areas of legal practice. Thomas has been selected as a Colorado SuperLawyers Rising Star in 2012, 2013 and 2014. If you have questions about estate planning generally or wish to schedule an appointment to explore your estate planning options, Tom can be contacted at (303) 893-6100.
